

THE PROPOSED IMPROVEMENT

Of South Walnut Street.—Attorneys Argued Matter Before Council Thursday Evening.

ADOPTION OF A RESOLUTION

By Council in Favor of Proceeding With Improvement.—Other Matters Considered.

The city council held a lengthy and important session Thursday evening. All members, excepting Councilman Mills, were present and there was an unusually large attendance of citizens. Quite a number were there as the result of their interest in the proposed improvement of South Walnut street. It was the time set for a hearing on the question of whether the benefits of the proposed improvements are equal to the cost.

The property owners opposed to the improvements and those favoring it also were represented by attorneys to argue the question of whether the remonstrance recently filed was sufficient to knock out the improvement. J. H. Kamman appeared for the former and O. O. Swails for the people favoring the improvement.

It will be recalled that following an investigation of the signatures on the remonstrance by a special committee, the council decided that the 80 per cent. of affected property owners necessary to kill the improvement, had not signed the remonstrance. Attorney Kamman argued that this was not the case, that contrary to the committee's decision, all the owners of a single piece of property were entitled to be counted on a remonstrance; that Sundays should not be counted in figuring the ten days following the passage of the resolution for the improvement during which the property owners have the privilege of filing a remonstrance. If this was the case, one or more names signed on Monday following the Saturday which was supposed to be the last day for filing, would be counted. He also claimed that the new law does not repeal the old law providing that if 60 per cent. of affected property owners remonstrate, a resolution for improvement, must be passed by two-thirds of the council and an appeal is then allowed to court.

He presented figures which he asserted proved his contention that the necessary 80 per cent. had signed the remonstrance. He also presented his views in support of the claim that the benefits of proposed improvement do not equal cost and claimed, as a matter of fairness, that so large a per cent. of property owners having protested, the improvement should not be proceeded with.

Mr. Swails presented arguments in opposition to those made by Mr. Kamman on the various points at issue. Among other things he said that if all the owners of a single piece of property have the right to be counted (which he believed was not the case) then all of these people would have to be counted in figuring the number of property owners on the street which would make a cor-

TWO DEATHS.

Occurred in the Same House Within a Few Hours.

Mrs. Mary Warren, aged 42 and the widow of the late Hugh Warren, of Freetown, died last night at 9:20 o'clock after an illness of eight weeks. She had been suffering for some time with an abscess on her hip and this finally caused her death. Five children survive.

The news of her death was sent to Cortland to her brother-in-law, Joseph Warren. He arrived at her home about 10 o'clock and shortly afterwards while on the front porch, he suffered a severe attack of heart trouble. He was carried into the house but failed to rally and died at one o'clock this morning. He was a well known farmer, was about 50 years old and is survived by his wife. The body was removed to his home south of Cortland this morning where the funeral will take place Saturday afternoon. Burial at Robertson cemetery.

Suit For Possession.

The suit of Jacob F. Ficken and Elizabeth Rutkar vs. Joseph Jaynes for possession of land and $50 damages was heard in Justice Miller's court this afternoon. The plaintiffs bought 20 acres of land in Redding township of Rebecca Jackson. Jaynes was a tenant on the place. They claim he should have moved March 1 but during that month and since has forcibly retained possession.

Notice of Intention to Fill Vacancy.

Notice is hereby given the inhabitants of the city of Seymour that a vacancy has occurred in the office of councilman at large of said city by resignation of Jos. S. Mills, the duly elected and qualified councilman therein, and that the vacancy thus occasioned will be filled by the common council of said city at a special meeting thereof called to meet at 7:30 p. m. on the 4th day of May, 1911, at its council room.

Dated April 28th, 1911.

John Haugchild, City Clerk.

Following the trial in Justice Blish's court Thursday evening in which Mrs. Amanda McClelland of West Fourth street, was the defendant, she swore out a warrant for the arrest of Mrs. Anna Harvey on a charge of assault. In Justice Congdon's court this morning the latter entered a plea of guilty but later withdrew the plea and asked for a change of venue. The case was sent to Justice Blish's court where it will be held this evening.

RESIGNATION OF MILLS RECEIVED

By the City Council at Meeting Which Was Held Thursday Night.

WAS ACCEPTED WITH REGRET

Two Members of Night Police Force Also Resigned.—Their Successors Elected.

For a time, at the meeting of the council Thursday evening, it looked as though the city government was going to pieces and all of the public servants were headed for private life via the resignation route.

Communications from Councilman Mills and night policemen John Bauermeister and Thomas Tucker, offering their resignations from office, were read by the clerk. The report that Councilman Mills would retire from office had been in circulation for several days and there had also been a report that probably another member would offer his resignation, but it is understood that after considering the matter he decided, upon the solicitations of friends, to hold his seat.

After the reading of the resignation one or two members spoke, expressing regret over the action taken by Mr. Mills. The resignation was accepted and it was decided to select his successor at the special session of the council to be held Thursday evening, May 4.

Mr. Mills was not present at the meeting and in his communication to the council, assigned no reasons for his resignation. The communication was as follows:

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council:

Gentlemen: I herewith tender you my resignation as councilman at large for the city of Seymour. Thanking you for courtesies extended me in the past.

Yours truly,

J. S. MILLS.

This morning Mr. Mills had no statement to make regarding his action. He said that the communication to the council contained all he had to say but intimated that he had simply had enough and that life was too short for such service.

Following the reading of the resignations of two members of the night police force, Councilman Misch moved their acceptance and took occasion to say that a change in the force may be for the best, considering the number of robberies lately and the fact that none of the thieves have been caught. The successors of the two men were then selected.

Councilman Misch presented the name of George Wolfe and he was elected by unanimous vote. Councilman Sherman Day nominated Peter Byrne to fill the other vacancy and Councilman Tasker nominated Walter McGovern. The former was elected, receiving the votes of all but Misch and Tasker. Tucker, it is stated, expects to tend bar for Alex Lee if the latter secures liquor license. Bauermeister has not made his plans. It is understood that he had grown tired of criticisms of the night police force.

Wolf, one of the new men, formerly served on the police force for several years, while Byrne is an ex-sheriff of Jackson county and has made something of a reputation in the past as a detective. He figured conspicuously in connection with the conviction of Hinshaw.

The new men go on duty May 1.

Gas Demonstration.

The demonstration given by the Seymour Public Service Co. in the Majestic Theatre was attended by increasing crowds each day, the closing session being held this afternoon. Yesterday afternoon the Estate Gas Range was awarded to Mrs. D. C. Bothwell on North Chestnut street. One of the surprising features at each demonstration has been the results which Mr. Draper was able to secure from the use of so small an amount of gas. These demonstrations will doubtless prove very helpful to every person who attended them and makes use of the suggestions which have been made.

Steinwedel's Removal Sale.

The sale which is being conducted by Adolph Steinwedel at his clothing store has started with a good volume of business. Mr. Steinwedel expects to remove within a short time to the room now occupied by Ross' Shoe store and during this sale, which is reducing his stock prior to moving, he is offering some good bargains to all who take advantage of them. See his advertisement on another page of this issue.

Lady Maccabees.

A number from here went to North Vernon Thursday evening to assist in organizing as Lady Maccabee-ledge. Those going were Mrs. W. B. Hopkins, Miss Clara Steele, Mrs. Albert Johnson, Mrs. Mayme Blevins, Misses Nora Cadem and Nellie Fenton.

A large class of candidates was given the degree work and the Seymour visitors report a good time. The Columbus hive gave the work. A banquet was served.

An Old Relic.

W. A. Carter is the proud possessor of the fixtures of the first post office Seymour had. His father, the late, Travis Carter was postmaster and had the office in his store. Later the fixtures were kept at the home of his father as a relic for seventy years. They are made of cherry and are about the size of an ordinary mantel bed.

MARRIED.

Charles H. Hackman of Redding township, and Miss Emilie Dunker, of Jackson township, Bartholomew county, were married last night at 7:30 at the German Lutheran parsonage, the Rev. E. H. Eggers officiating. They will reside with the groom's father, George Hackman, in Redding township.

VICTORY WON BY DRY FORCES

In all of the Three Townships In Which Local Option Elections Were Held Thursday.

MAJORITIES WERE REDUCED

But Temperance People Are Satisfied.—Carried Majority of Precincts.

The temperance forces won in each of the three townships of the county in which local option elections were held Thursday and as a consequence the three will remain in the dry column.

In Brownstown township the dry majority was 22, in Carr 40, and in Vernon 39. The wets carried the first and third precincts in Brownstown township and also the Crothersville and Bethany precincts in Vernon township which voted together. The dries carried all of the other precincts excepting the Medora precinct in Carr township where there was a tie vote.

In Brownstown 684 votes were cast Thursday. Two years ago at the county local option election 795 votes were cast in the township.

In Carr township 392 votes were cast Thursday, 6 less than two years ago.

In Vernon township the vote this time was 521, which was 9 short of that cast in 1909.

The majorities of the dries was considerably reduced this year but considering the fact that the situation is different in some respects the temperance people feel well satisfied. At the county local option election the dries carried Brownstown township by 121, Carr by 118 and Vernon by 124. The wets were much disappointed in Vernon township as like the dries they expected to carry the election. Thursday evening after the polls closed the wets at Crothersville were seemingly confident they had won and had a drum corps out celebrating but the returns showed they celebrated too soon. The women took an active interest in each contest. At Crothersville they served a free dinner and free supper for all at the polls.

The vote by precincts in the three townships was as follows:

NEW TIME TABLE

Will Go Into Effect on Pennsylvania Next Sunday.

A new time table will go into effect Sunday, April 30 on the Pennsylvania lines. There are a number of changes as follows:

NORTH BOUND.

No. 33 from 5:00 p. m. to 4:46 p. m.
No. 25 from 9:16 p. m. to 8:56 p. m.
No. 7 from 11:08 p. m. to 12:35 a. m.

No. 7 is a flyer and will make the time between Louisville to Indianapolis in 2 hours and 55 minutes, which is 1 hour and 25 minutes better time than the old schedule. It will also run from Louisville to Logansport in 4 hours and 25 minutes which is two hours and twenty minutes better time. Between Louisville and Indianapolis it will make stops only at Seymour, Columbus and Franklin. There is only one change in the south bound trains. No. 18 which was due here at 5:21, is scheduled to arrive at 5:27.

PLANS ACCEPTED

For New-Building to be Erected by Seymour National Bank.

Plans for the new building to be erected on S. Chestnut street by the Seymour National Bank, have been selected. Thursday H. C. Johnson, Dr. J. M. Shields and Lynn Faulkner were in Indianapolis and closed a contract with the architect, Wilson B. Parker.

The new structure will be of brick and stone, with reinforced concrete floors, attractive tile partitions and thoroughly fire proof. It will be modern in every particular and a building which will be a credit to the city.

The entrance will be on Chestnut street, between imposing stone pillars. The stairway will be in the south side of the building.

Birthday Dinner.

Mrs. Martha Jane Bess of Crothersville, who is well known here, celebrated her sixty-first birthday anniversary at noon today. An excellent dinner was served. A daughter, Mrs. Thomas McGannon of Seymour, was one of the guests.

Rebekahs.

After the business session of the Rebekahs Thursday evening, the April social committee served refreshments of straw-berries, cream and cake. Mrs. A. B. Shuts was chairman. All present enjoyed the treat.

School Children.

The enumeration of the school children of the city has been completed by Miss Attie Postlethwaite who was appointed by the school board. Her report shows 1,381 children of school age in Seymour, 1,340 of them being white and 40 colored.

Rugs and Carpets.

PARTIAL ECLIPSE

Of the Sun Visible in Seymour This Evening.

A partial eclipse of the sun is scheduled for this evening in Seymour. For part of the world it will be a total eclipse. It will be a total eclipse, starting on the southeastern coast of Australia, racing across the Pacific ocean, passing over the Friendly islands, Samoa, and a few other small islands, falling just short of the southern Mexican coast, ending just off the coast of Central America when the sun sets.

For all that distance and for a breadth of about 160 miles the moon's shadow will darken the earth, and for from 1,000 to 2,000 miles on either side of the path of the total eclipse a partial eclipse will be visible.

In Indiana the partial eclipse of the sun will begin an hour before sundown and will end just about the time the sun touches the horizon.

This will be the only eclipse, partial or otherwise, visible anywhere in America this year, for, while there will be an annual eclipse of the sun in the fall, it will be visible only in the eastern hemisphere. A solar eclipse is, of course, caused by the moon coming between the sun and the earth. The eclipse of the moon is caused by the earth going between the sun and the moon, casting its shadow upon the moon.

When the sun is in total eclipse, its whole face is blackened, which permits earth beings to see the wonderfully colored corona of the sun, which while it is always shooting its gorgeous rays of light from the sun at all angles, is invisible to people on the earth because the sunlight is too strong.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in overcoming rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Home of Swamp-Root, Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y. on every bottle.

MAYOR KNOTTS TO FACE COURT

Date of Trial of Gary's Head Is Set.

SENSATIONS ARE PROMISED

With the Beginning of the Trials Monday Growing Out of Last December's Election Disturbances, Curtain Rises on What Promises to Be One of Most Spectacular Criminal Cases Ever Tried in Northern Indiana.

Gary, Ind., April 28.—The curtain has started to rise on what will probably be the most spectacular criminal cases ever tried in northern Indiana, with the action of Judge Willis McMahan of the Lake county circuit court, in setting the trial dates of Mayor Thomas E. Knotts, Chief of Police Joseph D. Martin and other Gary officials, who were indicted last December by the grand jury in connection with the election troubles of last fall. The first case begins next Monday, when former Policeman Peter Boasch will be tried on an indictment charging him with assault with intent to kill.

Judge McMahan has also named the same day for the case of former Policeman Mike Yocovich (Dog Face Charlie), Peter Boasch and Paul Brodovich, who were indicted on the charge of trying to murder the sheriff of Lake county, Thomas Grant, on election night.

On Tuesday, May 2, the cases of Attorney Henry C. Price, Safety Commissioner Emmett White and Police Captain John Mulcahey, who were indicted on the charge of rioting, will be called. A separate indictment charging the trio with illegally attempting to enter a polling place is docketed for the same day.

Wednesday, May 3, is the day on which Mayor Thomas E. Knotts, Chief J. D. Martin, former Street Commissioner P. C. Finerty, Sergeant William Miller, Captain Gustave Newman, Sergeant Louis Jenkins and Detective John Kertesz are scheduled to be tried. The indictment against them is conspiring to commit a felony, and it embraces several counts, including conspiracy to kill Sheriff Thomas Grant, conspiracy to intimidate voters and other serious accusations.

GAVE HIMSELF UP

Indiana Fugitive Tired of Roaming the Earth.

Marion, Ind., April 28.—William Mitchell, alias Dago Mitchell, brought here from Shelbyville by Captain James Thompson of the Marion police, will enter a plea of self-defense for the murder of William (City Sport) Jones, March 1, 1901. Mitchell says he protected an old soldier Jones was trying to defraud, and they quarreled. When Jones put his hand in his pocket Mitchell says he stabbed him for fear Jones intended to shoot.

Mitchell says he wandered over the country after the murder and made one trip to Liverpool, always in fear of arrest, until, broken in health, and on the advice of friends, he decided to surrender.

Pleaded Guilty to Forgery.

Rensselaer, Ind., April 28.—William E. Brandenburg was sentenced to the state reformatory two to fourteen years for forgery, to which charge he pleaded guilty. He said he had served a previous term in the reformatory for horse stealing.

PEOPLE WE KNOW.

They are Seyour People, and What They Say is of Local Interest.

When an incident like the following occurs right here at home, it is bound to carry weight with our readers. So many strange occurrences go the rounds of the press, are published as facts, people become skeptical. On one subject skepticism is rapidly disappearing. This is due to the actual experience of our citizens, and their public utterances regarding them. The doubter must doubt no more in the face of such evidence as this. The public statement of a reputable citizen living right at home, one whom you can see every day, leaves no ground for the skeptic to stand on.

F. H. Leach, 605 W. Jackson street, Seymour, Ind., says: "About six years ago I had a fall that injured my kidneys. I suffered greatly and though I spent much money for medicine of various kinds I did not get relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. In view of my satisfactory experience with this preparation, I advise other kidney sufferers to give it a trial."

A SEYMOUR WIFE

Helped Erring Husband Out of Columbus Jail.

There may be some married men who do not regard their wives as any great shakes as helpmates, but not so with Terry Little, of Seymour, who was jailed here Tuesday night on a charge of intoxication. At any rate he has good reasons to appreciate the helpfulness of his wife, for she came here this morning and got him out of jail.

She paid a part of her husband's fine and costs and, arranging with Mayor Barnaby to pay the balance, she took her erring husband home with her. While in court Little said that he had a good job at Seymour which he would very much dislike to lose and when asked what sort of a job he had, he replied that he was working in a factory at $1.50 per day, all of which goes to show that they pay fancy wages in Seymour.—Columbus Republican.

Do Ghosts Haunt Swamps?

No, never. Its foolish to fear a fancied evil when there are real and deadly perils to guard against in swamps and marshes, bayous, and lowlands. These are the malaria germs that cause ague, chills and fever, weakness, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters destroys and casts out these vicious germs from the blood. "Three bottles drove all the malaria from my system," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had fine health ever since." Use this safe, sure remedy only. 50c at the Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Averts Awful Tragedy.

Timely advice given Mrs. C. Willoughby, of Marengo, Wis., (R. No. 1) prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. Doctors had said her frightful cough was a "consumption" cough and could do little to help her. After many remedies failed, her aunt urged her to take Dr. King's New Discovery. "I have been using it for some time," she wrote, "and the awful cough has almost gone. It also saved my little boy when taken with a severe bronchial trouble." This matchless medicine has no equal for throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by the Andrews-Schwenk Drug Co.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of Mrs. Jacob W. Branaman, who died at Jackson, Miss., March 16, will be held at the Presbyterian church in Seymour, Sunday, April 30, at 11:30 a. m. The remains are expected to arrive on No. 1 Sunday morning. Mrs. Branaman was a sister of Mrs. Allen Swope and mother of Mrs. Jerry McOsler, of Brownstown.

To Make it a Success.

The temperance people are considerably interested in making the Picket-Brownlee meeting at the First M. E. Church at 3 o'clock next Sunday afternoon, a success, coming as it does but a few days before the reopening of the saloons. Rev. Mr. Pickett, who is known as the Kentucky whirlwind, will deliver a sermon lecture emphasizing the necessity of a union of all forces against the liquor traffic. Prof. J. A. Brownlee will enliven the service with his singing. Those in charge of the meeting, express the hope that the men and women of Seymour who favor better conditions, will give this combination a hearing.

Rugby Bicycle

Other bicycles may be higher priced but they are not better. The Rugby is a bicycle that can be depended upon. It is made of quality material in every part, and the parts that come in for unusual strain are made so good that they really become the strong points of the machine.

The Rugby shows its quality in the superior finish and its fine lines. The best of all, the Rugby shows quality after long continued service.

SHE RECOGNIZES HER OLD LODGER

Mrs. Ingersoll Positive Jim Mc-Namara Is "Bryce."

CAME FACE TO FACE WITH HIM

If He Recognized Her He Gave No Sign, but She Was Positive in Her Declaration That He Was the Man Sought—McManigal Denies Confession and Then Repeats It.—John J. McNamara Issues Address.

Los Angeles, April 28.—Ostensibly to hear from J. D. Fredericks, district attorney, an outline of his legal rights, James B. McNamara, called to the office of the county jail, came face to face with Mrs. D. H. Ingersoll of San Francisco. She identified him positively as "J. B. Bryce," a lodger in her house in that city last September, the man who is alleged to have bought the dynamite that wrecked the Times building, killing twenty-one persons.

Dropping the mask he has been wearing for the benefit of his alleged accomplices in numerous dynamiting outrages, Ortie McManigal practically has revealed himself as the star informer of the W. J. Burns detective agency and principal witness for the prosecution in the trial of the McNamaras. McManigal not only has been in close touch with Burns, but it is practically certain that he has received pay from Burns for serving him by playing his part in all the acts of the so-called "wrecking crew" to which he has confessed. His fear of consequences should the McNamaras and their friends learn his exact relation to Burns explains the precautions taken to prevent the truth from becoming known until all were safely in jail. Burns evidently learned enough about McManigal to compel the latter to go through with his part as commanded and tell Burns every move of the wrecking crew and the location of every dynamite plant.

After conferring with Attorney Hilton, John J. McNamara prepared a statement to union men throughout the country, in which he says: "In this second attempt to crush and discredit the cause we represent I realize fully the desperation of the enemies of labor arrayed against us, but I am of good heart, for it will fail."

"That I am innocent of any infraction of the law in word or act needs no emphasis from me, for the truth is mighty and will prevail right speedily, and for it I can afford to and shall contentedly wait."

"I send to all brothers and friends of union labor the world over my earnest and affectionate greetings, with the assurance that there is no villainy of conspiracy possible of which we are afraid. I am also confident that it is not asking too much of the public to suspend judgment in these matters until opportunity for a full and fair defense has been afforded."

When J. B. McNamara was taken to the office in the county jail he believed the purpose of the trip was a conference with District Attorney Fredericks. Mrs. Ingersoll was stationed at a point in the jail office where she could look him squarely in the face as he entered. If he recognized her, his self-control was wonderful, for after merely a glance he turned his eyes to the district attorney, who told him his legal rights, and in a few minutes McNamara was taken back to his cell. Mrs. Ingersoll, according to the district attorney, declared in positive terms that James McNamara is the one who, under the name of J. B. Bryce, was a lodger in her house in San Francisco last September.

Attorneys Hilton and Harriman were in conference with the prisoners for three hours. McManigal was the first one they saw. Hilton, in the presence of two witnesses he had for the express purpose, asked McManigal, "Have you made any confession of any sort?"

"I have never made a confession," was the reply.

The witnesses will be used, if a confession is introduced, to discredit it by swearing that McManigal denied ever having confessed anything.

As soon as the district attorney heard what Hilton had done he had McManigal taken to the prosecutor's office. There McManigal is said to have repeated the confession Burns says he made in Chicago.

According to a Burns man the confession of McManigal reveals a long series of dynamiting outrages which, according to McManigal, were planned for Los Angeles and vicinity. These included the proposed dynamiting of the Los Angeles aqueduct, now under construction, the destruction of some of the city's personal water reservoirs and pipe lines, and a number of explosions in various parts of the city for the purpose of terrorizing the people.

McManigal is said to have told in detail of a large number of cases of dynamiting in other cities. The confession conforms closely to that given out in Chicago, the trend of which has been printed.

ORGANIZED EFFORT TO GET DYNAMITERS

Indianapolis Business Men Show
They Are In Earnest.

Indianapolis, April 28.—Civic organizations to the number of about 500, including members of the Manufacturers' association, the Merchants' association and board of trade, met at the board of trade rooms last evening to consider means for apprehending the men who committed the dynamite outrages in this city and to give moral support to the efforts to bring J. J. McNamara and his pals to justice.

Walter Drew, representing the Erectors association addressed the meeting by request and told the story of the dynamite outrages of the past five years. He said that further investigations would take place in all the cities in which explosions had occurred and advised the meeting to take up the subject here and investigate with a view to determine the inspiration of the outrages and the men who were employed in them. He was confident, he said, that all the outrages had a common origin, but that did not mean that all the agents employed are now in custody.

The meeting immediately voted to employ lawyers and detectives to investigate the four explosions that destroyed the property of the non-union contractor Von Spreckelsen and the dynamiting of the Drake property at Columbus this state.

Wound Terminated Fatally.

South Bend, Ind., April 28.—Mrs. Grant Winrott is dead from gunshot wounds inflicted by her convict husband, who will be prosecuted for murder. Investigation by the police showed they quarreled over the custody of their daughter, three years old. Custody had been given the woman in connection with separate maintenance. Winrott tried to take the child away by force and shot his wife when she sought to prevent him.

Postoffice Inspectors Round
Up Bad Gang.

ARREST OF MARTIN THORSEN

Charged With Being Head of Gang That Raided Chicago Jewelry Store, Ex-Convict Is Said by St. Louis Postoffice Inspectors to Be Leader of One of the Most Dangerous Gangs Operating in America.

St. Louis, April 28.—Following a tip from postoffice inspectors here, the arrest of Martin Thorsen, ex-convict, in Chicago, has, the inspectors declare, rounded up one of the most dangerous gangs of bandits operating in America. At the time Thorsen was arrested in Chicago, charged with being one of five bandits who raided the jewelry store of Edward Alberti & Son there, he was under indictment by the federal grand jury here, as one of five bandits who robbed the Bremen avenue postoffice station in St. Louis, in March, 1911, and engaged in a running duel with policemen.

The St. Louis postoffice inspectors learned that Thorsen was in Chicago. They could not learn his address, but learned that the diamond robbery in question was contemplated. They tipped off the Chicago office and sent photographs of Thorsen, whose alias is Martin O'Hara. Thorsen is said by the postoffice inspectors to have planned the Chicago robbery to aid two suspects who have also been indicted for the Bremen avenue robbery and who are now in the St. Louis jail. A connection is also alleged between the robbery and the recent St. Louis city jail breaking plot, thwarted by Jailer Wolf.

The men in the St. Louis city jail are Thomas O'Neill, alias William Raftus, and James Tuohy, alias James Sheridan. Two other men whose names are withheld were also indicted. O'Neill was arrested by the police at the time of the postoffice robbery. Sheridan was arrested by postoffice inspectors the following day.

THE HOUSE ENLARGED

Hereafter It Will Be Made Up of 433 Members.

Washington, April 28.—The house late yesterday afternoon passed the bill reappropriating representation in congress on the basis of the census of 1910. The bill fixes the number of members of the lower branch in the Sixty-third and succeeding congresses at 433. Consideration of the Democratic free list bill was resumed today.

Under the new apportionment twenty-five states gain in representation. New York leads with an increase of six members, thus giving that state forty-two instead of thirty-six representatives. Pennsylvania gains four members, Oklahoma and California each three; Illinois, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Texas and Washington each two and the following states one each: Alabama, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Utah, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, North Carolina, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, West Virginia and Idaho.

HOPEFUL SIGNS

Mexicans Extend Their Armistice
Pending Peace Negotiations.

El Paso, Tex., April 28.—The armistice, which terminated at 1 o'clock this afternoon, has been renewed for another five days. Arrangements were made with official Mexico by private code telegrams. No change has been made in the document, and its provisions hold as at present.

"The outlook is very hopeful for an early settlement," said Francisco Madero, leader of the Insurrection. "I will not make any statement as to the identity of my commissioners or the place of the peace conference until the arrival of Dr. Gomez from Washington. He is expected tomorrow. The federal government will name its peace delegates as soon as the place of the meeting is decided."

Accused by Stepdaughter.

Rensselaer, Ind., April 28.—Joseph McColley of Wheatfield was sentenced to state prison for two to twenty-one years, on a charge made by his stepdaughter, Lizzie Kirkzie.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

APRIL 30, 1911

God's Pity for the Heathen. Jonah 3:5-10; 4:1-11.

GOLDEN TEXT:—Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, Matt. 28:19

The committee calls this a foreign missionary lesson, and it is certainly a grand missionary story, reaching on even to the kingdom when it shall be fully seen that "salvation is of the Lord" (ii, 9). With this saying of Jonah I have in my mind the words of the Lord Jesus to the woman of Samaria, "Salvation is of the Jews" (John vi, 12). Putting the two together we have the great truth that salvation is of the Lord through the Jews. This is and will be seen to be true of all individuals and also of nations. All the redeemed in heaven and on earth owe their redemption to the blood of a Jew, and the nations as such will not be saved till the glory of the Lord is risen upon Israel. Then they shall come to her light and kings to the brightness of her rising (Isa. ix, 1-3; lxix, 1-3; xxvii, 6; Jer. iii, 17; Zech. ii, 10-12).

We have in our lesson the only instance, as far as I know, of a whole city penitent. But when Israel shall have had her resurrection from the dead and a nation of Pauls shall go forth into all the world witnessing as He did in the power of the Spirit, knowing all languages and having all wealth at their command, whole nations shall turn to the Lord in true penitence and "All kings shall fall down before Him, all nations shall serve Him" (Ps. lxxix, 11).

The Lord Jesus spoke of the experience of Jonah in the belly of the fish, his preaching and the repentance of Nineveh, and those who question the truth of the story of Jonah question the veracity of Jesus Christ. It is the work of the devil to question the word of God or the love of God (Matt. xii, 39-41; xvi, 4; Gen. iii, 1-5).

Could there be a more vivid picture of the churches' indifference to the command of Christ in our Golden Text than that of Jonah on this ship? The only man who knew the true God is fast asleep, while the heathen sailors are diligently calling upon their gods. They only found out who he was and why he was there by questioning him.

In a certain place we read that Jesus could not be hid (Mark vii, 24), but some who bear the name of Christian seem to hide Him quite successfully. Contrast II Cor. iv, 10, 11; II, 14.) Think of Samson and his fatal sleep, Peter, James and John asleep in the presence of great privilege and also of great suffering and consider if you need the question of chapter 1, 8, and if so what will your answer be? As to the great fish prepared by the Lord to take care of Jonah I often wonder why people have been so long looking for fishes of the same kind, for the record does not say that the Lord made two great fishes to propagate the species, but that He prepared a great fish.

For aught we know the fish may have died when it finished its ministry to Jonah, as probably did the little fish that brought the coin to Simon Peter. The winds of I, 4; iv, 8, were special winds for the occasion, as were also the gourd and the worm of iv, 6, 7, special preparations for special ministry. I have long rejoiced in the truth of Eph. ii, 10, and firmly believe that all the good works of all the Lord's people are prepared beforehand for them to walk in. It is helpful to say concerning all things, pleasant or unpleasant, "prepared for me by infinite love."

With all Jonah's peculiarities he seems to have been a man full of the word of God, for his prayer in chapter II is almost wholly Scripture. In the margin of my Bible I note in his prayer nine quotations from or references to the Psalms, besides some from other parts of Scripture. When he did finally start for Nineveh the word of the Lord to him was, "Preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee" (iii, 2). Compare Jer. i, 7; Ezek. ii, 7; iii, 11; II Tim. iv, 2; Acts viii, 4, 25, and note that our Lord Himself said only what the Father told Him to say (John xii, 49; xiv, 10; viii, 28).

It would be a great thing and greatly to the glory of God and the good of both speakers and hearers if all preachers and teachers would prove themselves to be "the Lord's messengers in the Lord's message unto the people" (Hag. i, 13). All such might rest assured that His word would always accomplish His pleasure and never return to Him void (Isa. lv, 1).

Jonah was like a man alive from the dead, and His message was the Lord's and not his own, and the people of Nineveh believed God (iii, 5) and turned from their evil ways unto God, and God saw it and did not bring the threatened evil upon them. It would have pleased Jonah better if God had destroyed Nineveh. And because he knew that God was gracious and might have mercy upon them if they repented he refused at first to obey God (iv, 1-3).

Concerning God's repentings mentioned in chapter iii, 10, and in so many other places in Scripture we must remember that God cannot and never does change His mind about anything, for He knew everything from the beginning (Acts xv, 18), but He does change His mode of procedure, and as God always knew that He would just at that place in history and in that way.

Rheumatism Comes From Bad Kidneys

Once Your Kidneys Work Properly, Rheumatism, Kidney Disease and Bladder Trouble Disappear. How To Cure Yourself.

It is no longer necessary to spend months and months undergoing a complicated treatment for rheumatism, kidney or bladder trouble, or spend a good many dollars in doctors' bills. A new treatment can now be obtained which seems to act more like a marvel than a medicine. This treatment has produced such satisfactory results in a short time that it is now guaranteed from first to last.

There should be no more doubt about the rapid cure of rheumatism, no fears of the fatal termination of treacherous kidney disease or dropsy. Rheumatism means nothing more nor less than that your kidneys do not work properly. Your blood passes through the kidneys hundreds of times a day to be filtered and purified. When the kidneys are weak, the poisons are not taken out of the blood as they should be. This leads to various diseases, such as rheumatism, terrible Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy and bladder trouble.

The new guaranteed treatment is Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills. One day's use of them will prove their remarkable effect. "M. T. Ridenour of Lima, Ohio, says: 'When I feel bad in my back, I just take a couple of Derby's Kidney Pills and get immediate relief.'"

If you have rheumatism anywhere, back pains, cloudy, foul urine, pains in the bladder, Bright's disease or diabetes, put your whole confidence in Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills, and you will not be disappointed.

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are sold at all drug stores—25 and 50 cents, or we will send them direct from the laboratory of Derby Medicine Co., Eaton Rapids, Mich., prepaid, if you wish. If you want to try them first, just tell your druggist to give you a free sample package.

BOYS' MARBLES
MADE BY GIRLSOhio Factory Rolls Out 125,000,
000 Clay "Pills" Each Year.

STANDARD OIL A LARGE BUYER

Clay Marbles Also Used Extensively by Manufacturers of Rubber, Ink, Salt, Chemicals and Powder—How They Are Made, Counted and Paid For.

It has been estimated by statisticians that over 200,000,000 small clay marbles are used annually by the boys of the United States every springtime. It is a known fact that 125,000,000 of these little clay "pills" are made every year by one clay marble manufacturer, whose plant is located in Summit county, O. And these marbles are made or rolled by young girls.

The clay marble industry of the United States is one that little thought has been given to, and precious little is known by people in general as to its scope. The marble manufacturer does not devote all his attention to the manufacturing of the "game marble." There are various uses to which the marble is put, and as a matter of fact the size varies according to its intended use. The Standard Oil company is one of the largest buyers of marbles, and these are used for oil cans, and larger sizes are started in graded pipe lines to clean out the paraffin which gathers on the side of the pipe as it flows to the tanks.

A Prosaic Process.

Clay marbles are also used by the manufacturers of rubber, ink and salt, chemical and powder makers. They are also used in grinding the large stones of the lithographer and by railway supply people. Puzzle box makers are also large buyers of marbles.

The size of the clay marbles as made in the United States vary from nine-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, which is the small "pill" the boys play with, to one measuring six inches in diameter, or about the size of a small cannon ball.

The making of a clay marble forms an interesting journey in ceramics. The method of making all kinds of marbles is the same with the exception of the "glassie," which of course is made of glass. Clays used in the marble industry are of a plastic nature. These clays are cast into a pug mill, or "chaser," and as the heavy wheels revolve over the clay it drops in a pulverized form into a bin beneath the mill. It is then lifted by an endless elevator system to storage bins, from where it is allowed to pass through pug mills.

The stiff clay is then forced through the perforated base of the pug mill, and it comes from the mill in the form of clay strings, the diameter of these being regulated by the round holes in the base of the mill and to conform to the size of the marble to be made. These rolls or strings of clay are pulled from the pug mill when they are about eighteen inches in length and placed on a flat board and then are taken to the clay shops or where the marbles are made.

Molded by Girls.

The rolls of clay are first placed evenly in a "trough," and a workman cuts the rolls of clay into cubes, the size being specified according to the order. The cutting is done with a saw, and seven rolls of clay will form over 200 little cubes, and it is from these cubes that the marble is rolled.

After the cubes have been cut they are placed in an ordinary tin pan and these carried to the girls who make the marbles. A handful of cubes is picked up, and these are placed one at a time in a grooved plaster of paris mold. The size of the groove also depends upon the size of the marble to be made. When there is one clay cube in each groove a plaster oblong block is placed in position on top of the cubes, and this is pushed forward and backward until the little clay cube becomes round and rolled true. This operation requires very little time, and then the top block is lifted and the clay marble in its green state is picked up and a "handful" is placed in a tray. This operation resembles that of picking up a bunch of grapes.

A girl who has acquired speed in her work can make from 25,000 to 30,000 marbles per day. As there are fifty rolls to a block, the operator is paid 6 cents per thousand for the making of the common clay marble. The finer the grade the order calls for, the higher the price paid for making. There is not a great profit in the making of the common clay marble, when the fact is taken into consideration that they are shipped to the markets at a price varying from 16 to 20 cents per sack of 1,000 marbles each.

Counted by Weight.

Marbles are counted by weight; also by the cubic foot. The small clay marble measuring nine-sixteenths of an inch in diameter weighs six and one-half pounds to the thousand and are colored at the rate of 200,000 every eight minutes.

SENATOR FRYE

Resigns Ranking Place in Senate
On Account of Advancing Years.

Washington, April 28.—On account of ill health, Senator Frye of Maine tendered to the vice president his resignation as president pro tempore of the senate. It is probable that Senator Gallinger will succeed him as president pro tem.

READY FOR ARREST
OF EDWARD TILDENIllinois Senate Charges Him
With Contempt.

Springfield, Ill., April 28.—Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms Hatfield has departed for Chicago to make service on warrants issued by Lieutenant Governor John G. Oglesby for the arrest of Edward Tilden, the Chicago packer, and his banking associates.

Those whose arrests are ordered with Tilden are: W. C. Cummings and George M. Benedict. All are charged with contempt for refusing to appear before the Illinois senate committee which is investigating the election to the United States senate of William Lorimer. Tilden, as president of the National Packing company, is alleged to have been closely connected with the Lorimer election by acting as the custodian of the $100,000 fund declared to have been used in the campaign. Cummings is president of the Drovers' Trust and Savings company and Benedict is cashier of the Drovers' Deposit National bank, both of Chicago.

The action of the senate in ordering the arrests was taken on recommendation of the senate bribery investigation committee after Tilden, Cummings and Benedict had refused to produce Tilden's personal bank accounts for the months of May, June, July and August, 1900. The committee believes the bank accounts will show evidence of the use of money in the election of Lorimer.

ANOTHER CLEW

Indiana Powder Dealer Identifies Cans
Found at Wrecked Plant.

Portland, Ind., April 28.—Nitroglycerine used by persons who destroyed the structural iron mill of McClintock, Marshall & Co., at Peoria, Sept. 4 last, was sold by M. J. Morehart, manager of the local magazine of the Du Pont company at Portland.

Monday, August 9 last year, Morehart delivered at Albany, near this city, 100 quarts of the explosive to a man who gave him name as J. B. McGraw. McGraw answers, Morehart says, the description of J. B. McNamara, arrested at Detroit a few days ago and taken to Los Angeles to answer for the wrecking of buildings in which many lives were lost. McGraw gave as a reason for buying the nitroglycerine that he was the owner of a large stone quarry at Peoria and wished to use it in blasting. He met Morehart with an auto and the dangerous stuff was transferred.

The Peoria explosion, set off by wreckers under the McClintock-Marshall plant was only partly successful, and Morehart, it is said, has identified cans found planted at the Peoria mill, as some of those sold to McGraw.

An Interesting Possibility.

London, April 28.—It is reported that Lieutenant Colonel Sir Matthew Nathan is to replace Sir Eldon Gorst, who has been British agent and consul general in Egypt since 1907, when he succeeded Lord Cromer. If the change materializes Sir Matthew will be the first Hebrew to hold power in Egypt since Joseph.

LOSS OF CATCHER.
WORKS HARDSHIPFamous Pitchers Prefer to Work
With Certain Backstops.

CY YOUNG MISSES LOU CRIGER

Without Old Side Partner Veteran Twirler Has Lost Much of His Effectiveness—Smith, Marquard, Plank, Howell, Mathewson Others.

By TOMMY CLARK.

Many baseball critics contend the loss of star catchers often spoils the effectiveness of crack pitchers. A glance back into history reveals some very interesting dope on this point.

Take, for instance, Cy Young, the veteran pitcher of the Cleveland team. He will admit to you that much of his effectiveness was due to the work of Lou Criger behind the bat. Old Cy was never much at holding the base runner on, but with that wonderful throwing arm that Criger possessed Cy had no need to worry in that direction. With other men catching it was different. With Criger back in his old form and handling Cy's slants the battery would still be famous.

In 1906 Pitcher Frank Smith, now of the Boston team, but then a member of the Chicago White Sox, was one of the stars of the American league. Whenever Smith pitched for Chicago McFarland did the catching. The pair was well nigh invincible. Lack of condition proved McFarland's undoing. His passing from the club put a big dent in Smith's effectiveness. While Billy Sullivan is one of the best catchers in the game, he was never able to make Smith show his true form.

When Harry Howell was right he was one of the best spitball twirlers in the country. Harry was always paired with "Buck" Spencer. The battery was very effective. When Spencer was traded to Boston and later sent to the minors Howell lost his one best bet. No other catcher seemed to handle him as well as Spencer, and he immediately went on the toboggan and passed out of the majors.

With Bemis doing the receiving, Heine Berger of Cleveland looked like a sure enough star. Illness put Bemis out of the running, and no other backstop seemed to know how to work Berger, and his pitching fell off badly.

Four years ago the battery of Livingston and Marquard was the most feared in the American association. The Indianapolis team won many a victory through the individual work of these two men. Livingston is now with the Athletics and doing well, but Rube Marquard has yet to show form. It looks as if Marquard lost his cunning when Livingston was taken away from him. The New York catchers don't seem to understand the eccentric southpaw.

No backstop will ever be able to get the work out of Ed Plank, the Athletics' southpaw, that the late Doc Powers did. Plank, a most difficult man to handle because of his crossfire, was like picking cherries for Powers. Since Powers' death many catchers have handled the slants of the veteran, but he does not seem to be as effective as of old.

When Connie Mack split the battery of Waddell and Shreck he broke up the most unusual pair that ever drew salary in the big leagues. Waddell was never the same nor as effective after he lost his old receiver. It was the starting of the Rube on the down grade.

With Roger Bresnahan behind the bat, Mathewson was almost invincible. Matty always preferred Bowerman, but with the latter doing the receiving he was not nearly as effective as when the fiery Roger was the windpaddist. The work of the pair in the world's series in 1905 will never be forgotten. When the club parted with the services of Bresnahan the club lost a big asset. With Roger on the team now the club would win the 1911 pennant. Matty is still good, but there is no catcher on the Giants' payroll that can handle him like Bresnahan.

These are but a few of baseball's peculiar combinations that may have been badly shattered because of some act that causes the breaking up of the famed teams.

CUB PLAYERS BOOST BARRY.

Say Athletics' Shortstop Was Real Star of World's Series Last Fall.

Jack Coombs, Chief Bender and Eddie Collins were the three members of the Philadelphia team most lauded for the American triumph over the Chicago Cubs last fall. These three great players were generally regarded as the three best reasons to advance for the ease with which the Athletics won over the National league champions. The Chicago players, however, give more credit to Shortstop Jack Barry than any other member of the club. They say Barry broke up more plays than all the other Mack men put together. Manager Chance is strong in his statement that Barry was really the big star in the series.

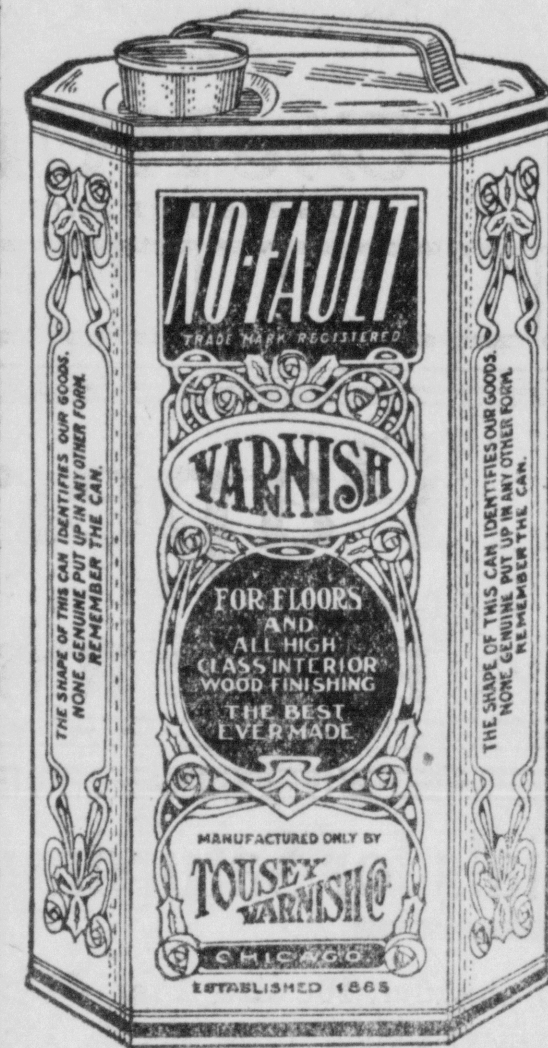

Rusie Back In Game.

Amos Rusie is back on earth. He has found an angel in a millionaire lumberman at Charleston, Miss., who is willing to back a ball club there for him. Rusie will try to pitch or play first.

S.S.S. NATURE'S CURE FOR BLOOD POISON

A great many medicines used in treating Contagious Blood Poison are composed largely of mercury and potash, and are intended to dry up or remove the humiliating outward symptoms. But such treatment cannot cure the disease, and its continued use will often so weaken and disease the stomach as to make a nervous wreck of the patient. And too, when these mineral medicines are left off the smoldering poison takes on new life, and soon the old symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, brown, scaly spots, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc., return with increased virulence. S. S. S. cures Contagious Blood Poison by purifying the blood and keeping the stomach and digestive members in perfect condition all the while by its fine tonic effects. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, made entirely of roots, herbs and barks of recognized virtue as blood purifiers. S. S. S. cures on the principle that not only must the poison be removed from the blood, but also the circulation must be enriched and vitalized with nourishing powers. S. S. S. is known everywhere as the greatest of all blood purifiers and a safe, certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. Home treatment Book and medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

CHAPTER XX.

THEY might have given me leave, for Vasca had not too many friends, but the count gave them no time to answer. In a moment he was upon me, and his first blow split my harness at the shoulder. I knew that the wound was deep, for afterward it troubled me sorely; but, then, I hardly felt it. My whole ambition was to kill Vasca. That done it mattered not what happened. Even Daria was forgotten for the time. It was an unequal struggle. He was mounted and fresh, I on foot and weary. As he tried to ride me down I caught the horse's bridle and attempted to throw him back upon his haunches. The count was too good a horseman to let me succeed in this, however. He knew his advantage and was not going to throw it away by having to meet me on foot.

"I TOLD YOU THAT I ALWAYS CRUSHED MY ENEMIES."

"The time is nearing its end," he laughed. "I told you that I always crushed my enemies."

He dealt me a blow which staggered me as he spoke. The time was nearing its end. What could I do?

He followed me up as I staggered back, prepared to strike again.

I made a feint, then dodged his blow and sprang up at him, my foot upon his foot in the stirrup. My arms were round him. His horse plunged, and in an instant the count and I were on the ground. Now we were both swordless and helmetless. My fingers gripped his throat.

"The time has come!" I hissed as, still gripping his throat with one hand, I struck his head twice, thrice, with all my strength with the other.

I should have killed him. My fingers would never have relaxed until they had gripped life out of him, but it was not to be. Men rushed in to separate us. I was dragged from my victim and a few moments later was lying on my back, my arms bound to my side.

The count was not dead, but he was unconscious. They took him up, and a space was cleared for them to carry him to some spot where he could be attended to. And it was through this space that I saw the last incident of that terrible day—the end of the fight.

The rising ground was before me, and its gallant company of defenders lay still upon the sides of it. As I looked the enemies' hands were laid upon the princess, and only one friend was beside her—Jasar. Foes surrounded her and dragged her from her horse. Seeing that all was lost, the priest might have considered that his life was still valuable to his mistress, that he might help her in her captivity. But the hands were laid roughly upon her, and that hurt him. His sword came down upon the nearest of her enemies, and for a minute he was dealing out death around him. They would not have killed a priest, possibly, but Jasar, save in raiment, was a priest no longer. As a warrior there was no quarter for him, and I saw him fall dead at the feet of the woman he had loved and served so well.

It was the last thing I saw—the last episode of that day—for a blackness came between my eyes and the blue sky, and for me the day ended.

When I recovered consciousness we were within sight of Yadasara. I was lying upon a rough litter, which four men carried carefully, and the swinging motion was not unpleasant. My arms were no longer bound, and the wound in my shoulder, which throbbed considerably, had been carefully bandaged up.

I raised my head to look about me. "You're better, then?" said a man, coming to the side of the litter.

"Yes. It's hot, and I'm thirsty. May a prisoner drink?"

"Why, yes. We've been doing our best to keep you alive since yesterday."

"Since yesterday! A day and a night passed?"

He nodded.

"You know me?"

"You were in my company when you were in the king's guard."

"I remember. It is almost like being among friends."

"You'll hardly find it so yonder," and he waved his hand toward the city.

"I suppose not. Tell me, where is the princess?"

"In front."

"Well—safe?"

"She is well cared for; have no fear of that. You are both too precious to die for the want of a little attention."

"Could I speak to her?"

"No," he answered sharply.

"Not for the sake of old comradeship?"

"No; I cannot do it. I have no ill will toward you. I admire a worthy foe, and if I can do anything for you yourself I will, but I cannot do what you ask with regard to the princess."

"And Count Vasca?" I asked after a pause.

"Much as you are, getting better."

"That is bad news. I had hoped that the debt was paid."

"You did your best," he returned.

"Though we be jailer and prisoner, we have something in common, at any rate," I laughed.

"What is that?"

"We both regret that I did not succeed."

We crossed the river by the bridge of boats, and it was evident that many of the citizens had come out to meet us, for there was much shouting.

My former comrade came to my side again.

"A conqueror could not command more interest than you," he said.

"That is poor consolation."

"I think I would be a great traitor rather than nothing," he answered.

"I am not even a great traitor," I said.

"I would not say so if I were you. It is easier to confess and have done with it. Better to die quickly than slowly in the fortress yonder. If I dared do it I would plunge my dagger into you now, and I should be doing you a kindness."

"You think so, friend, but I had rather live. I have been in worse straits than this. I may live to be in worse again."

"You will, and then you may find death too long in coming."

"Death and I seem to be old friends; we have walked so long together," I answered.

"You are a brave man, but a fool!" he said.

With help I walked across the palace yard between ranks of warriors and then was face to face with the king.

"So you come again to Yadasara," he said, a smile upon his lips.

I did not answer. My eyes were fixed on Daria, who stood a few yards from me, guarded by soldiers.

"And you bring a welcome companion this time. We thank you. You made many enemies by your escape, but it has served us better than if you had failed. There's little strength in you now. We must see that that is restored a little before we punish you for your treachery. It would be a poor recompense to see such a man die like a woman."

"Your highness shall not see that," I said.

"We have heard many a strong man boast as much," he answered. "We have good arguments against the boast. To the fortress with him, but treat him gently. He shall have a chance of proving his boast. You, madame, too, are weak, for all you stand so bravely. You shall have rest and gentle treatment for awhile. Then we shall find means to pay you for the lives of our subjects which your rebellion has caused. To the fortress with them both."

I was placed in the litter again and carried up to the fortress. They were very gentle with me, and, knowing what was in store for me, some of them may have pitied me.

The guard of the fortress received us, and with a considerable amount of formality I was handed over to my new jailers. I hardly noticed them, for my eyes were fixed upon a figure sitting in a porch within the gateway. The man sat limply, looked as though he were in pain, and I saw that his arm was in a rough sling. Hope was not dead. I had a friend in the fortress.

"O'Ryan!" I cried, a tone of joy in my voice doubtless.

He looked at me, but did not move. There was an exasperating chuckle at my ear, and I turned to face the Spaniard, Costa.

He was fatter and greasier than ever, and he was tricked out in bright armor.

"You'll find that friendship dead," he said.

I glanced at O'Ryan. He had risen from his seat and looked so different from what I had known him that I concluded that the wound I had given him in that desperate fight upon the stairs must have been deeper than I had thought.

"I will come and make you comfortable presently when I have attended to your princess," Costa said. "Truly this fortress is honored now."

He laughed as the heavy door closed upon me. Presently he returned, followed by two men carrying rugs, with which they proceeded to make me a not uncomfortable bed in one corner. Costa sat down on a stool and remained silent until he dismissed them.

"You have a good couch," he said directly we were alone. "You will have good food and drink. You are well lodged."

"As an animal fattening for a fair," I answered.

He laughed.

"That is a good description."

"My position amuses you?"

"Not yours so much as the woman's."

"Do you mean the princess?"

"Call her so if you will," he answered. "Carrying herself like a queen—in armor, too; nothing of the miserable prisoner about her. Ah, it amuses me greatly."

"Is she lodged in the fortress?" I asked as unconcernedly as possible.

"Yes, my friend. As chief of the fortress I have the honor to entertain you both. She is now clothed as a woman, and as a woman—Ah, she is better, much better. She has beauty enough to make fools of some men."

"Take care you are not one of them," I said.

"You are too good a warning," he answered. "See what the love of a woman has brought you to."

"Love!" I laughed. "Is that laid to my charge too?"

"Do you say you are not in love with this woman who calls herself a princess? Count Vasca spoke differently."

"Am I to be judged by what Count Vasca says of me?"

"There are other matters, many other matters, that I need not tell you of."

"And the punishment?"

"In good time. It will come."

"When I am strong enough to bear it?"

He nodded.

"The machinery and torture, then death and an exit from Yadasara that way," I pointed to the corner of the cell where the locked flagstone was.

"Yes," he said, rising, "but it may be easier than you think—it depends."

"Upon what?"

"The executioners."

"And the princess?" I asked after a pause.

He shrugged his shoulders.

"It is always difficult to prophesy the fate of a beautiful woman," he answered. "But for you, my friend, let me advise—make friends with the executioners."

DEADLY GERMS IN FUR AND WHISKERS OF CATS.

Bacteria Which Cause Ptomaine Poison and Three Other Kinds Found.

"Poised on every whisker of the household cat, ready to pounce on unsuspecting human beings, are numberless microbes with terrifying names." Dr. Charles B. Reed of Chicago, who seeks to exterminate the feline tribe, is the authority for the above statement. In order to secure evidence against "pussy," Dr. Reed nipped off a whisker from an ordinary alley cat and from it secured four different cultures of dangerous germs.

The germs and some diseases they are said to produce are as follows:

A germ of decomposition causing ptomaine poisoning.

A germ producing blood poisoning, and, when it strikes the proper membrane, sore throat and intestinal troubles.

A sort of cousin germ to the one named above, but not so dangerous, as it is milder in action.

A germ of the intestines which also causes a variety of infectious diseases, including kidney disease and puerperal fever.

Dr. Reed said to shave whiskers off a cat would not help any, as a cat's fur also is full of disease germs.

ECLIPSE OF THE SUN.

Pacific Ocean Will Be Darkened on April 28—Where Visible.

On April 28 there will be a total eclipse of the sun, but those who wish to see the corona must go to the middle of the Pacific ocean and locate on some small uninhabited island. This is a long distance to travel simply to look at the sun, but total eclipses are of great importance to the astronomer, and some astronomers will travel thousands of miles in order to photograph the corona and interesting phenomena brought out only during the total eclipse.

This month the eclipse will be entirely invisible in Canada or any section of the country north and east of Philadelphia. In the eastern part of the United States the eclipse is visible as a small partial eclipse just before sunset, the sun setting eclipsed. The farther west one goes the more is the eclipse visible. At San Francisco the eclipse begins at 3:05 p. m. and ends at 4:20 p. m. At the City of the Golden Gate but one-quarter of the sun's diameter on the southern edge will be covered up.

At total eclipses there are often visible the rosy red flames of the solar fire shooting up many thousands of miles above the sun's surface. Astronomers, however, no longer are obliged to wait for an eclipse to see these interesting phenomena. They are rendered visible by the use of the spectroscope.

Woman Burned to Death.

Galesburg, Ill., April 25.—Miss Lizzie McKee perished in a fire that destroyed the Catholic parsonage at St. Augustine, of which she was housekeeper.

Fell Downstairs in Sleep.

Evansville, Ind., April 25.—Walking in his sleep at his residence here, Gerhart Gerdes fell downstairs and was so badly injured that he probably will die.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28, 1911.

The resignation of J. S. Mills from the city council is a distinct loss to that body. He was one of the councilmen who had the qualities of leadership, and his personal character is above reproach. He stood at all times for what he believed was right and while everyone has not always agreed with him, his integrity has never been questioned.

The choice of his successor has not been agreed upon so far as the public is informed. The remaining members of the council will do well if they choose a man of broad ideas as a business man, so that the affairs of the city may receive attention in a business-like way.

Since the Merchants' Association is the only organization of a public nature whose purpose is the improvement of business conditions in our city, the council would do well, we think, to consult some of its leading members, as well as other business men, before determining their choice of Mr. Mills' successor.

OSTEOPATHY

Liberates the inherent forces of the body; whereby uniform blood and nerve supply is established, assimilation is quickened, poisonous waste matter is eliminated, diseased parts are adjusted and strengthened, giving nature a chance to perform her proper work and build from simple food all parts of the body. Thus deep seated, chronic cases are aided to recover after other remedies fail.

AS WITH AUTO AND WATCH so with the human body; it gets out of running order through the process of life and needs repairing. No defective machine can turn out good work. Every day that an "unclean" watch, auto, or any other machine is compelled to run, wears seriously its vital parts and saps its vitality. The longer you try to work while the body machinery is out of gear, the greater will be the damage it suffers. Health depends upon the human machine being kept in good mechanical order. Adjustment of the human body is the particular and special work of THE SPAUNHURST OSTEOPATHS. That they are expert machinists and fix what is wrong is being demonstrated at their office over the First National Bank, Seymour, Phone 557. There can be no good reason for you to remain irritable and out of gear when opportunity to get well is knocking at your door. It is for you, sick friend. No charge is made for examination, and now is the time to drive away that tired feeling that usually comes with spring time.

If you know of any chronic cases on which the physicians of your locality have expended every available resource and failed, do them a good turn by directing them to the osteopaths that they may demonstrate to them the efficacy of their treatment.

Reasonable time is absolutely necessary to overcome chronic cases of long standing. Hence you should be fair with the osteopath and take treatment sufficient time to adjust what is mechanically wrong and effect a permanent cure. The treatment is neither harsh nor painful, not a cure-all, but it makes more full and permanent cures of rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, headaches, catarrh, asthma, paralysis, poor circulation, stomach and bowel disorders, than other methods. a19mwf-tf responding increase in the number of remonstrators necessary. The law he said, made absolutely no provision for excluding Sunday in counting the ten days of the remonstrance period. He presented figures to show that the necessary 80 per cent. of legal signatures had not been obtained. J. H. Holtman, a property owner favoring the improvement and C. R. Emery opposing it, made talks.

THE PROPOSED IMPROVEMENT.

After the discussion had ended, Councilman Taskey made a motion that the whole matter of the improvement be dropped and the motion was seconded by Councilman Hodapp. Their votes were the only ones recorded in favor of the motion.

Councilman Davison then presented a formal resolution which set forth that the proper hearing had been given, that it was the opinion of the council that the benefits of the improvement equal the cost, and confirming the resolution for the improvement as originally adopted. All of which means that steps for the improvement will be proceeded with. Only one councilman, Taskey voted against the resolution.

A resolution for the Vine street sewer was presented and adopted.

A petition from J. H. Holtman, et al, was presented asking that a drain on S. Walnut which empties waste water from a private residence into the street gutter be abated. The matter was referred to city attorney to investigate the question of what can be done to relieve situation and as to who shall pay for a sewer if one is ordered.

The condition of the streets at several points, among them the Oak and Maple street corner, was ordered investigated.

Councilman Hodapp reported that he had had trees in park trimmed.

He also secured an order from the council for the cutting down of a large mulberry tree on an alley east of O'Brien street. The tree, he said had not produced a single mulberry for years and the place has become known as the "Bums' home." There the evil minded have been in the habit of congregating to plan mischief.

Councilman Hodapp, who as chairman of the park committee and by his attitude at various times, has become known as the champion in the city council, of the beautiful and the aesthetic, won a victory for the further improvement of the lot in the rear of the city building. Notwithstanding the opposition of one or two members, he forced the passage of a motion providing that the board fence around the basement entrance be replaced by an iron railing, also that the lot be enclosed by a hedge fence, such as the B. & O. is to put around the lot in the rear of its office building. Councilman Hodapp is also in favor of some nice flower beds filled with geraniums, dahlias, verbenas and other beautiful flowers upon which B. & O. passengers from the wilds of other sections may feast their eyes as they pass through the city.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

IT GROWS HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Andrews Drug Co.
